

SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE

Reflections on Virginia's Colonial Indian School: The Brafferton at the College of William & Mary in conjunction with the exhibition

Building the Brafferton

The Founding, Funding and Legacy of America's Indian School

Thursday, November 3rd | Scholarly Program

Open to the Public and Students, held at the Muscarelle Museum of Art

Symposium Session I

- 9:00-9:25 AM Guest Sign-in / Student Poster Session:
Dan Delmonaco – Cockacoeske
Brendan Thomas – Henricus College on the Virginia Landscape: 1619-22
Marie Crumpton – George Washington's Letter to the Tuscarora
Emma Bresnan – Clothing for the Indian Boys
- 9:25 AM Ben Fox – Video Short
- 9:30 AM Welcome Remarks by President W. Taylor Reveley III
- 9:45 AM The Built Environment of the Historic Campus Part I, Ed Chappell, Colonial Williamsburg (read by Megan Victor)
- 10:10 AM The Built Environment of the Historic Campus Part II, Susan Kern, Ph.D., Director of W&M Historic Campus
- 10:30-10:55 AM Break / Student Poster Session:
Rachel Rose – Cherokee Leader Cunne Shote
Ann Waters – John Montour and Brafferton Student Translators
Jacob Mendel – The Brafferton Estate
Hannah Caffacus – *Ritual versus Pleasure: How Native American Pipes
Fueled the Tobacco Industry*
Thomas Barto – Money for the Indian School: An Examination of Primary Documents
- 11:00 AM Intersecting Worlds: The Brafferton and Its Irish Atlantic Context,
Audrey Horning, Ph.D., Queens College, Belfast
- 11:25 AM Making Pottery and Constructing Community During the Brafferton Era,
Ashley Atkins-Spivey, Brafferton Legacy Group, College of William & Mary
- 11:50 AM Students of the Brafferton, Buck Woodard, Ph.D., Colonial Williamsburg

12:30-1:50 PM Lunch (on your own) Mason School of Business, Merchant Square restaurants, etc.; Docent tours of Building the Brafferton exhibition available

Symposium Session II

2:00 PM Williamsburg's Bray School, Terry Meyers, Ph.D., College of William & Mary

2:25 PM Hark Upon a History: The 1929 Trip to England, Sydney Stewart, '16 and Michaela Wright, '16

2:50 PM Archaeology of the 2010s Renovation, Mark Kostro, Colonial Williamsburg

3:15-3:40 PM Break / Student Poster Session:
Isabel Ritrovato – Harvard's Indian School
Molly Bryant – Medicinal Practices and Brafferton Students
Jeannise Sarvay – Wampum in the Eighteenth Century
Valerie Trovato – Who Were the Children of the Bray School?

3:45-4:10 PM Memory and the Brafferton Indian School, Danielle Moretti-Langholtz, Ph.D., College of William & Mary

4:15 PM Closing Comments

The Building the Brafferton exhibition will be open upstairs on November 3rd (and runs through January 8, 2017). The symposium Reflections on Virginia's Colonial Indian School: The Brafferton at the College of William & Mary will be held in the Sheridan Gallery of the Muscarelle Museum of Art.